

<h2 style="color: #FFC000;">Skin Healing Cream</h2>	<h3 style="color: #FFC000;">1/4 Cup Raw Shea Butter</h3>	<h3 style="color: #FFC000;">1/8 Cup Virgin Coconut Oil</h3>	<h3 style="color: #FFC000;">3-4 Tbsp Arrowroot Starch</h3>	<h3 style="color: #FFC000;">3-5 Drops of Lavender EO</h3>
This all natural healing cream can be used preventatively as a moisturizer or to treat skin inflammations such as diaper rash. Whip 4 ingredients using a hand or stand mixer and store in a glass container for up to 3 months.	Contains anti-inflammatory properties, such as cinnamic acid and lupeol cinnamate reduces skin inflammations and possibly aids in preventing skin mutations.	Contains anti-microbial and anti-fungal properties from medium chain fatty acids: capric, caprylic and lauric acid (also in breast milk), protect against skin infections. This effect is even experienced when taken internally, healing the gut.	Seals in moisture and removes impurities. Assists in wound repair. Contains B vitamins, iron, copper and Zinc which are all essential nutrients for skin health.	Analgesic, antibacterial, anti-inflammatory, antimicrobial and antiseptic properties make it a great addition to any skin inflammation cream.